Charlie Banana Review and Giveaway! (US and Canada only)

January 23, 2012

Kristen here with an exciting giveaway from Charlie Banana. Ever since our son was born 18+ months ago we have always had some Charlie Banana in our cloth diaper stash. Last year when I was at the ABC Kids Expo I swung by their booth and saw their entire collection in person. During that time I got a sneak peek at their Fashion Collection. Now I get to review a diaper from the Fashion Collection. I chose the Blackbeary diaper. I have to say...this diaper is so much better than the sized Charlie Banana diapers we own. I am fan of one-size diapers anyways. Any with the new one-size Charlie Banana diaper I got a MUCH better fit and can definitely see using this diaper all the way until he potty trains. I LOVE this diaper. My husband really digs the print and has officially declared this as his personal go-to diaper when he changes our son. I will post some photos below so you can see the nice fit we got for our son.

So, have you ever tried anything from Charlie Banana? If you poke around their site you will be surprised at all they carry. They carry more than cloth diapers. One of the items on my wish list is their selection of mama cloth. I really want to try theirs out.
